ACADEMIC SYMBOLISM

THE MACE

The Mace symbolises the Institute's governing authority and is present only when the President and Board of Directors are in attendance. It signifies the proceedings have official sanction. Ceremonial occasions begin with the entrance of the Institute's Mace, carried by the Marshal, normally the most senior member of the instructional staff. The Mace of the Bahamas Technical & Vocational Institute (BTVI) is forty-eight inches long and is made of cherry wood, with four antique silver-plated medals engraved with the BTVI logo and a large silver finished layered flame on the square style head. The foot of the Mace is made of plain cherry wood and it is mounted in a horizontal Mace stand.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN AND MEDALLION

The Presidential Chain and Medallion are symbols of the rank of President and the authority of the Office of President. The sterling silver necklace features a commemorative medallion, with the BTVI logo, hung from sterling silver bars and a sterling silver chain that has been oxidized for a more antique appearance. The chain has a sequence of engraved president's banners.

ACADEMIC DRESS

Persons participating in the procession are attired in academic apparel in keeping with the custom at commencement exercises of institutions of higher learning. Academic apparel has been the tradition for hundreds of years and is governed by a generally accepted code.

THE GOWN

The gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship for it completely covers any dress or rank or social standing. Regalia varies slightly from one institution to another and within an institution according to the status of the wearer. Variations include the type of sleeves of the gown as well as the fabric. The BTVI gown is blue. The associate of applied science gowns are accented with gold stoles. A long-pointed sleeve normally indicates the bachelor's degree while the master's degree gown has an oblong sleeve cut in an arc with a slit at either the upper arm or wrist. The doctoral gown has bell-shaped sleeves and may also have velvet facing and three sleeve bars or chevrons. The sleeves of a president's gown bear four chevrons. The trimming may be black or it may match the degree colour on the gown's edging.

THE CAP

The BTVI mortarboard or beret is blue. The tassel is worn on the right side of the mortarboard until the degree, diploma or certificate is conferred at which point the tassel is worn on the left. The BTVI associate of applied science degree candidates for graduation wear gold tassels and gold stoles. Diploma and special interest candidates wear blue tassels. Certificate candidates wear white tassels. The tassels on the mortarboards worn by faculty may be black or a colour indicating the degree. Those who hold a doctoral degree may wear a gold tassel.

THE CORD

The white cord is worn by candidates on the President's List (GPA of 3.75 - 4.0). The gold cord is worn by candidates on the Honours List (GPA 3.50 - 3.74). The National Honors Society candidates wear a purple stole and a white cord.
